

September is Attendance Awareness Month, and a great time to start building #AttendanceAwareness — all year long!

To get you started, we have a few example social media posts. You can copy and paste the posts you like best for your social platforms every few days in September — and beyond.

Some hashtag options:

#AttendanceAwareness #AttendanceMatters

#K12Achievement #K12Education

And don't forget to add your school or district hashtags!
